Model, Mobilize, and Momentum

The ‘three m’s’ encompass the heart of our vision and were seen in action this past month as Pastor Somnang again led a team of young leaders to visit Pastor Muny and the children in Takeo, Cambodia.

Savee, Ja, Jua, and Gao, all student leaders from the church in Phnom Penh, went to visit children across a range of villages in Takeo where hundreds of children receive support from local leaders under Pastor Muny, including Bible teaching, school supplies, discipleship materials and food. As Pastor Muny models the ministry in Takeo with Pastor Somnang’s work in Phnom Penh, leaders are being mobilized and momentum is growing. Jua, for example, has been inspired to take additional leadership roles in the ministry to children in the slum community near the church in Phnom Penh. Using his love for soccer, Jua leads a group of young boys each Friday night in an outreach designed by Pastor Somnang. In Takeo, local leaders are being inspired to take initiative in helping the children in their communities, which has further encouraged us to continue to work towards raising funds to build a learning center and children’s home in a central location among the now seven villages served by Pastor Muny.

The three M’s were also in full effect in Bangpli, Thailand, this past month, as Pastor Vino led his group of student leaders into the surrounding community to share the Gospel. As the ministry continues to grow in Bangpli, we are hoping to soon provide funding to build additional classroom space.

With the momentum growing in both Cambodia and Thailand, we are becoming aware of and connected with many more children in need. One of the ways we are seeking to help these children is by working with Lifesong for Orphans to expand our child sponsorship program. Through working with indigenous leaders like Pastor Vino, Pastor Somnang, and Pastor Muny, we have selected 80 of the children in most need and would like to soon introduce them to you as individuals. Please stay tuned for an update coming soon!
